

Kaplan IT Learning Partners with Larmer Brown

Larmer Brown and Kaplan IT Learning have joined forces to offer business transformation, content development and training services for STT and Atlantic Link products including STT Trainer, STT InfoShare, Content Point, Capture Point and Knowledge Point.

Larmer Brown specialises in assisting organisations with the implementation of large IT projects and learning initiatives, through Content Development and end-user training delivery Programmes.

Janice Brown, Managing Director of Larmer Brown said: - "We are very pleased to be adding the STT and Atlantic Link products to our portfolio of content development tools. We are very impressed with what these products offer both for IT systems and 'soft skills' training and feel they can bring considerable benefits to our client base in terms of time and cost savings."

Brendan Scullion, Regional Sales Director of Kaplan IT Learning said: - "We are delighted to have formed this partnership with Larmer Brown and are looking forward to leveraging their substantial experience within the fields of change management, business transformation and end-user training for enterprise applications. We look forward to working with them in raising the profile of Kaplan's award winning learning tools within these areas to help clients enhance their training."

About Larmer Brown:

Larmer Brown has provided change management and learning solutions to corporate clients since 1984. Previously a classroom training company with five regional offices, they have evolved into a services organisation closely associated with large ERP projects. Larmer Brown's primary objective is to help organisations realise the desired business benefit from their software applications, through successful User Adoption Programmes.

By facilitating Change and Communication, User Acceptance Testing, Training and Support activities, they offer a guaranteed, measurable solution tailored to every project, helping you to reduce the risk of project failure. Larmer Brown's Developers utilise a variety of content development tools.
